

CRMJ220N : Juvenile Justice

In this course, students will examine theories, causative factors, and treatment in regard to youthful offenders. The philosophy behind and development of treatment and rehabilitative practices are explored. Adolescent behavior, peer pressure, and the role of the family will be examined. This course also includes legal, procedural, and substantive issues pertaining to the juvenile justice system.

Class Hours 3

Lab Hours 0 Credits 3

Prerequisite Courses

CRMJ102N