

ESOL085N : Listening, Speaking and Pronunciation II

This course is for non-native speakers of English. The main focus is continued development of oral and aural communication skills. Goals for students include improving communication skills for school, work, and daily life. Class activities will include oral journals, oral presentations, listening activities, and technology integration. Credit do not count toward degree requirements.

Class Hours 3

Lab Hours 0 Credits 3

Prerequisites

ESOL083N or permission of the Department Chair/ Program Coordinator.