

FREN101N : French I

An introductory course for first year language study that takes a communicative, functional approach to teaching and learning French at the college level. The course includes grammar and conversation. At the end of the course, the student will be able to speak and write basic French.

Credits 3