

HATN114N : Honda Steering & Suspension

Honda automotive suspension, steering systems and wheel alignment procedures will be studied. This course will include the development of knowledge towards understanding the forces that affect vehicle control, suspension system design, wheel alignment angles and vehicle stability systems. Students will be trained in four wheel alignment procedures, suspension system repairs and steering system diagnosis and repair.

Class Hours 2

Lab Hours 4

Credits 4

Prerequisites

AUTO121N

Notes

A grade of 'C' or better is required for progression.