

HSV123N : Supportive Communication Skills

This course provides an awareness and general practice of interactional communication skills expected in a supportive relationship. Supportive communication will be taught through verbal instructions, case studies, and peer and self assessment. Observation and evaluation methods will be incorporated to assess the student's communication skills.

Class Hours 3

Lab Hours 0 Credits 3