

HUMA120N : Introduction to Theatre

In this course, students will engage in an overview of the world of theatre through the study of theatre history, dramatic literature, theatre performance and production, and the practical application of theatre skills to a real life situation. Emphasis is on theatre as an important aspect of our culture both historically and in the present day. Through the study of theatre history, dramatic literature, performance, and design, students will improve their understanding of this collaborative art form and its place in today's world. This knowledge will be put to practical use in the form of readings from selected works, observing theatrical performances and becoming actively involved in a theatre event. For an informed understanding of this art, students will attend one live theatrical performance. The student will be responsible for the cost of one ticket for an off campus production. Students will gain confidence in their abilities to be a part of a performing arts event as well as an appreciation for the importance of culture in our daily lives.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

ENGL101N or ENGL110N.