

Graduation Requirements and General Education Core Courses

General education core courses fall into a matrix of seven categories that contains six to ten courses from which you can choose to fulfill graduation requirements.

The categories include: English/Communications, Science, Behavioral Social Science, History/Political Science, Quantitative Literacy, Humanities/Fine Arts, Global Awareness and Diversity.