

Eligibility for Extracurricular Activities

To hold office, students must be “in good standing” at the College. A student officer who is placed on probation may continue to hold that office for the current semester. If such probation continues after the semester, the office must be vacated and an election held to fill the vacancy.