

Withdrawal and Readmission

Students who find it necessary to withdraw from the College should first notify their faculty advisor and then obtain a withdrawal form from the Registrar's Office. The student will circulate the withdrawal form to the indicated College offices and return it to the Registrar. Failure to officially withdraw or return College property may result in a student's records being noted: "Withdrawn-Not-in-Good-Standing."

An official withdrawal from the College after the last date to drop a course shall be considered effective the first day of the following semester for academic reasons, and the student will be held academically accountable for the entire semester. A final grade will be issued as though the student had completed the entire semester.

"Students who have officially withdrawn from the College may apply for readmission under the current program profile. Students will need to complete new program requirements if a program change has occurred.
