

English for Speakers of Other Languages

The Department of Multicultural Engagement offers support for non-native speakers of English including language evaluations, advising, tutoring, and social activities such as International Café, Conversation Partners, and the Multicultural Club. There are a variety of multi-level classes to improve English for social and academic purposes. Courses to choose from cover conversation, pronunciation, grammar, vocabulary, and writing domains.

Contact the Department Chair for more information.