

Walter R. Peterson Library and Learning Commons

The Library and Learning Commons is a welcoming area where the NCC community can find study space, computers and printing, academic resources including laptops, research and technical assistance as well as a tutoring and writing center.

Through its website, the Library provides 24/7 online access to an extensive array of academic resources, including search and citation tools, databases and ebooks, and research guides, on its website at <https://library.nashuacc.edu> (Use EasyLogin when prompted.) Staff can be contacted by phone, email and chat.

Drop-in math and writing tutoring by faculty members is available to all students, free of charge. Students can also access 24/7 online tutoring from Brainfuse in all Canvas courses.
