

Student Evaluations of Faculty

Each semester students are asked to evaluate their instructors. The entire evaluation process is designed to maintain and improve the quality of the educational programs at NCC, so it is very important for all students to provide constructive feedback to their instructors. The Office of Academic Affairs will conduct the evaluation and responses will not be shared with faculty until after the semester has closed. Student identity information is never collected or shared during the evaluation process.