

Academic Standing Committee

The purpose of the Academic Standing Committee is to review the appeals of matriculated students. The Committee may recommend any of the following actions:

- Academic suspension
- Academic probation
- Academic warning
- Letter of encouragement
- Removal from academic suspension or academic probation
- Appeal Procedure

The student will receive written notification of his/her academic standing. The suspended student must wait one full semester before reapplying for matriculation into his/her program of study. Suspended students may continue to take courses as a non-matriculated student and are required to meet with an academic advisor to create an academic plan and meet with the advisor on a regular basis.

Students who have a GPA of 1.0 or below at the end of their first semester of attendance will be placed on Academic Probation-I for one semester.
