

Academic Progress

Satisfactory progress toward completion, as specified in the Academic Standards section of the college Catalog, must be maintained. Students who are placed on academic suspension may no longer be certified for VA education benefits. Students who are suspended must meet the established Academic Standards before benefits can be resumed.