

Solomon Amendment

The Solomon Amendment requires institutions to provide directory-type information on students at least 17 years of age upon request of representatives of the Department of Defense for military recruiting purposes. The information to provide includes; names, addresses, telephone listings, date and place of birth, levels of education, academic majors, degrees received and the most recent educational institution enrolled in by the students. For more information, please see the Registrar.