

CSCN245N : Digital Forensics

Digital Forensics is the field of finding and examining digital clues. This class teaches students how to properly gather, store, and process digital evidence so that it is admissible in court proceedings. Topics include Windows Operating and File Systems, Network Forensics, Mobile Forensics, Photograph Forensics and Mac Forensics.

Class Hours 2

Lab Hours 2

Credits 3

Prerequisite Courses

CSCN101N

CSCN116N