

DATA201N : AI Tools and Business Automation

This course focuses on using AI tools to design and implement automated data-driven business processes. Students learn to connect analytics, reporting, and operational systems using AI copilots, APIs, and workflow platforms. Emphasis is on building intelligent, reliable systems that reduce manual work, improve accuracy, and support continuous decision-making while addressing ethical use, bias, and human oversight in automation.

Class Hours 2

Lab Hours 2

Credits 3

Prerequisite Courses

DATA102N