

HIST140N : United States History to Reconstruction

This course will provide an overview of the political, social, economic, and cultural development of the United States from the Pre-Columbian Era through 1877. It emphasizes colonial development, political institutions, the Revolutionary era and foundations of American government and democracy, sectional rivalry and slavery, the development of nationalism, and the cultural development of the American people. The course concludes with the period of Reconstruction.

Class Hours 3

Lab Hours 0

Credits 3